Comments
She was very fair about deadlines and late penalties and made it very clear what the class format would be. Her day-by-day syllabus was a great idea that I wish more instructors would do. I also loved the document she made for us to write about the problems we were having and how to fix them so that we could learn from each other! She created an educational but very open environment where I always felt that I could speak freely with my opinions/ideas.
She also did a great job transitioning to online-classrooms and kept constant contact with us.
For the last question, I selected excellent because Mrs. Cavalchire was by far one of my favorite instructors at UNC thus far.
Madison is always there to help. Even out of class, I could reach to her by email, phone, zoom very easily and quickly.
Madison made the transition to online work very smooth in this difficult time.

I literally have nothing bad to say about this woman! Especially for it to have been her first semester teaching, she did an amazing job. She spent so much time helping us inside and outside of class to make sure we understood assignments/to troubleshoot problems. There were many class periods where she stayed after an hour or more talking with us one-on-one or in smaller groups. She provided helpful feedback and treated everyone with respect and kindness. She made herself more available than we really deserved, responding to texts and emails all the way up to the deadline. She even discussed career plans and connected me with helpful resources from various fields that I was interested in.
Madison, you will be a PHENOMENAL professor if you choose you to continue teaching. You will be missed a ton so I hope we stay in touch! Thank you for all you've done for us this semester.
Mrs. Cavalchire was extremely supportive throughout the semester. When we had to move away from face to face teaching, I could always rely on her to answer very quickly and very helpfully.
Madison is soooooo helpful. She is always patient and always respond emails really fast to explain everything clearly. She would stay after class to answer all the questions we had no matter how late it was. She respects each of us and trys her best to help us. Thanks to her, the night class is not boring anymore. I really like her and would recommend her class to all of my friends. She is a great teacher!
Such an awesome teacher. Genuinely cares about her students!!
She is an amazing professor. She guided me well in the class, and helped me with any issues/questions/concerns I had. She was always available and at reach, I never had any issues contact her or getting help.
Madison was very flexible and helpful throughout the semester! She made suggestions that definitely helped me improve my work.
Wonderful instructor. Very kind, accommodating, and helpful.
Madison is an excellent instructor. She is patient and willing to help you with your questions, always there to make sure you do learn something from her class. She also provides effective feedbacks that can help you to improve a lot.
Madison Cavalchire has been my favorite instructor I've had in my two years at UNC so far. She is energetic, knowledgeable, encouraging, and always available to help her students. In my experience, she has worked tirelessly to help our class with any issues (technical or not) that come our way. I can tell she cares about each of her students and challenges them to do their best work. MEJO 121 is a difficult class no doubt, but Madison Cavalchire made sure we got the most out of the class and enjoyed it along the way. I admire her enthusiasm for her teaching and dedication to her students. If I could rate this instructor and her class it would be an 11/10.
Madison Cavalchire is one of the best professors I have had at UNC so far. She is always giving amazing feedback that is extremely helpful when doing the next assignment and she is very accessible outside of class. I had a question about one of the projects we did after we transitioned to online and she made a zoom meeting for me not even 20 minutes after I emailed her the question.
